

Top gift pick from the MIT Press

- A Publishers Weekly Indie Pick for Fall 2022
- Featured in the New York Times 2022 Holiday Gift Guide
- Featured in AARP Magazine's "Books to Give and Get" Holiday Gift Guide

"This gorgeous, unique book explores Black culture through wildly imaginative art and photography."

—AARP Magazine

"In this exciting, wide-ranging collection, Eshun presents speculative art and imagery from the African diaspora with a focus on folklore and Afrofuturism and explores works such as the paintings of Kara Walker and Chris Ofili and Jordan Peele's Get Out."

—New York Times Book Review

"Eshun offers a primer on what the 'Black Fantastic' encompasses: works of art that incorporate myth, fantasy and science fiction to reimagine Black culture and identity."

—The Washington Post Book World

Featured in:

- New York Times Holiday Gift Guide
- New York Times Book Review
- AARP Magazine
- The New Yorker
- Washington Post
- Los Angeles Review of Books
- The Boston Globe
- Forbes.com
- Vogue
- Another Chicago Magazine

In the Black Fantastic

By Ekow Eshun
9780262047258 HC
US $39.95
Available now

Distributed by Penguin Random House.

To place an order,
please call 1.800.733.3000 or fax 1.800.659.2436.

