Maya Angelou: A Writer's Journal

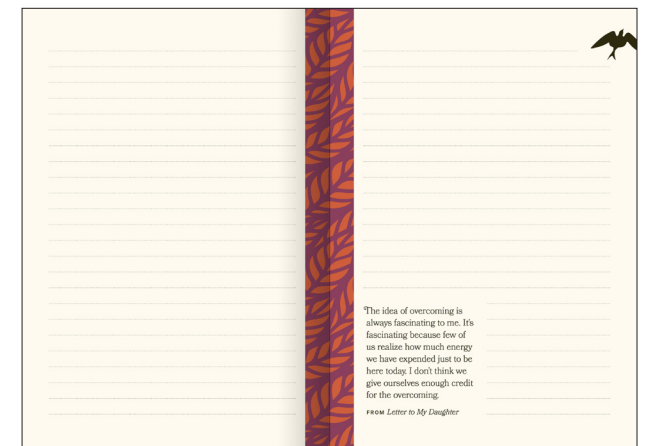

For the first time ever, fans of Maya Angelou have creative space to write their own masterpieces alongside quotes from the phenomenal poet, memoirist, activist, and actor in this elegant and evocative journal.

I am grateful that love exists: familial love (love between relatives), romantic love (a passion between lovers), agape love (divine love between God and friends), love of nature (the majesty of mountains, the lasting love of oceans), and the joy of laughter. We are stronger, kinder, and more generous because we live in an atmosphere where love exists. I am grateful for that.

from I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings

The idea of overcoming is always fascinating to me. It's fascinating because few of us realize how much energy we have expended just to be here today. I don't think we give ourselves enough credit for the overcoming.

from Letter to My Daughter

The Sobriety Deck

Simple Practices for a Booze-Free Lifestyle

A deck of 50 cards offering guidance and inspiration for anyone rethinking their relationship with alcohol, from the hosts of the award-winning podcast Recovery Rocks.

PAY IT FORWARD

Helping others is a rewarding part of the sober (curious) journey. There are many ways that you can help those in your sober (curious) community and beyond.

- See someone new at the peer support meeting? Say hello and consider asking them to coffee or taking their number for check-ins, if appropriate.
- Offer to pick someone up for the dinner you're both going to. It's a nice chance to connect in advance and spare someone the hassle of driving and parking.
- Bring coffee, tea, or snacks to your book club or running group.
- Surprise someone you care about with flowers for no reason.
- Give back through volunteer work or donations to non-profit organizations. One afternoon a month makes a difference.

FIND YOUR PEOPLE

As TED speaker Johann Hari says, "Addiction is the opposite of connection." Whether you're sober or sober curious, lean into any of the following communities to connect with folks who are also avoiding booze.

- Look up #sober or #sobercurious on social media. Comment on the posts that resonate with you.
- Find a peer group that intersects with other aspects of your identity. Check out Sober Black Girls Club, Gay & Sober, and Sober Mom Squad to start (see the Avoid Isolation card for more).
- Considering a 12-step program? Check out Alcoholics Anonymous or Al-Anon. You can attend meetings IRL or online.
- If financially possible, consider working with a mental health professional. Chatting with someone one-on-one who understands exactly what you're going through can provide a vast amount of support.

TAWNY LARA, also known as The Sober Sexpert, is the author of Dry Humping: A Guide to Dating, Relating, and Hooking Up Without the Booze. She reports on mental health and sex positivity. LISA SMITH is a leader in the movement to break the stigma around addiction and recovery in the corporate world. She is the author of the memoir Girl Walks Out of a Bar and is a founding member of the SHE RECOVERS® Legal Professionals group, a global network of attorneys and other legal professional women.

The Wine and Cheese Board Deck

50 Pairings to Sip and Savor

Learn how to expertly pair wine and cheese with this beautiful, accessible deck of 54 cards featuring 50 delicious combinations, from the bestselling author of The Cheese Board Deck.

NO 28
HOT HONEY BAKED CAMEMBERT
with SHIRAZ

Ingredients
Bageotte
2 tablespoons olive oil
Five anchovy fillets
Black pepper
100-gram wheel
Camembert cheese
10 tablespoons cheese
Catalan chutney, plus for serving
1 tablespoon hot honey
plus more for serving

There are "rules" about pairing wine with spicy food: namely, "spicy do it" but if you're going for residual sweetness and fat tannins can help counter the heat. But when it came to finding one that worked with this baked Camembert drizzled with hot honey and topped with Catalan chutney, I went the opposite direction, with a big bold Shiraz from Australia. Oh paper, it shouldn't work, but the full-forward profile of the wine helped bring down some of the heat, and the smooth velvety tannins soaked with the rich, melty cheese. All of which gives to show that the "rules" aren't as guidelines and don't be afraid to experiment with different combos to find something that works for you.

BAKED CAMEMBERT Serves 8 as an app.

Preheat the oven to 325°F and line a baking pan with parchment paper. Slice the Bageotte rounds and place on the sheet tray, drizzle with the olive oil, and season to taste with salt. Bake for 15 to 20 minutes or until golden brown. Set aside. Slice the top of the Camembert, cut an inch-wide slice and tuck it into the cheese. Spread the chutney and hot honey over the hole for 10 to 15 minutes, until the honey soaks slightly and the score marks are visible but do not bleed. Score with the heated bread and additional chutney and honey.

ABOUT THESE PAIRINGS

Wine choice: Shiraz	Category: big red
Pairing approach: complementary

For alternative red picks: Try a pinot noir, malbec, or Cabernet.

For another Shiraz/Syrah pairing: See Bacon-Wrapped Hamsteaks (No. 28) on page 23.

The 1619 Project: A Visual Experience

An illustrated expansion of The 1619 Project, The New York Times Magazine's award-winning reframing of the American founding and its contemporary echoes, placing slavery and resistance at the center of the American story.

Curated by the editors of The New York Times Magazine, led by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Nikole Hannah-Jones, this new, illustrated edition of The 1619 Project features seven chapters from the original book, interspersed with beautiful, engaging visuals that deepen your experience with the content. The 1619 Project: A Visual Experience offers the same revolutionary idea as the original book, an argument for a new national origin story that begins in late August of 1619, when a cargo ship of enslaved people from Africa arrived on the shores of Jamestown, Virginia. Only by reckoning with this difficult history and understanding its powerful influence on our present can we prepare ourselves for a more just future.

Complete with many of the powerful essays and vignettes from the original edition, written by some of the most brilliant journalists, scholars, and thinkers of our time, The 1619 Project: A Visual Experience brings to life a fuller, more comprehensive understanding of American history and culture.

THE 1619 PROJECT began in 2019 as a special project from in The New York Times Magazine to commemorate the 400th anniversary of the beginning of American slavery. It is led by Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist NIKOLE HANNAH-JONES, along with New York Times editor in chief JAKE SILVERSTEIN and New York Times Magazine editors ILENA SILVERMAN and CAITLIN ROPER.
