

NOW AVAILABLE IN PAPERBACK

"Disturbing and darkly funny." —People

"A primal scream." —Reactor

★ "Sparkling." —Booklist, starred review

"A scathing critique of capitalism that holds onto the humanity of its characters." —Time

"[A] luminous, acerbic and devastating debut novel."
—The Washington Post

"[A] fierce debut . . . This dystopian drama is a shout of millennial protest and a bleak workplace satire."

—James Smart, The Guardian

"McGhee's work here is not to be ignored . . .

I am in awe, and will be first in line for everything she writes after this."

—Christina Orlando, Tor.com

"A wildly imaginative, tender and piercing critique of the squeeze of capitalism."

—Xochitl Gonzalez, Good Morning America

"McGhee's writing . . . has the murky air of a swamp—a feeling that one could sink with her characters right through the novel's soil."

—Haley Mlotek, The New York Times Book Review

"A unique, timely, and inordinately effective book. Consider it a warning cry against a potentially grim future; if we are smart, we will listen."

—Colleen Mondor, Locus

PB • ISBN: 9781662602702 • eISBN: 9781662602122 • Price: $16 US / $22 CAN

To order, contact your PRH rep, call customer service at (800)-733-3000 or email csorders@penguinrandomhouse.com

