

TREE NOTES

Telephone poles, baseball bats, railroad ties. Peaches, nutmeg, and vanilla. The more you look, the more you realize: Our world depends on products made from trees. In this sweet book, forest ecologist Nalini Nadkarni takes you on a worldwide journey to learn more about trees—their variety, their usefulness, their beauty, and their importance, not only to human culture, but to the entire natural world.

Perfect for: Botanical gardens, natural history museums, science centers, naturalists and nature lovers, outdoor enthusiasts, and conservation-minded individuals
