

FROM THE WORLD'S MOST INNOVATIVE PHOTOGRAPHERS AT NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

Join National Geographic on a world tour like no other, with over 200 exhilarating photographs that'll take you soaring above the colorful roofs of European cities, discovering the intricate patchwork of American cornfields, tracing the surprising silhouettes of tropical islands, and witnessing the startling intricacy of underwater anemones—all thanks to photographers who refocused their lenses, looking down.

This book features in-depth interviews with prestigious photographers showing how the artists climbed, flew, dug, or rocketed into space to capture their most impressive shots.

Perfect for: photography galleries, art museums, and anyone who loves art, nature, photography, and travel!
