

Sports-Fans Delight!

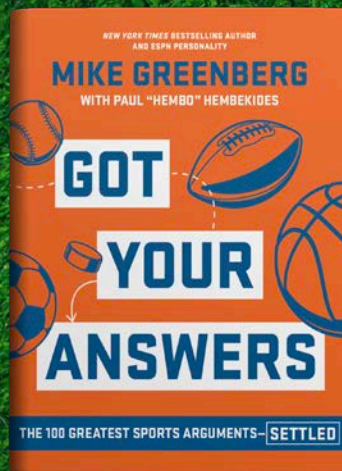

ESPN personality and New York Times bestselling author Mike Greenberg joins with mega-producer Hembo to bring you three great books for sports fans! Join in on the discussion and partake in the greatest sports American pastime: arguing about—and reveling in—everything sports.

Got Your Number
978-1368073561
320 pages HC, $25.99

In a fun historical tour of the American sports landscape, Greeny and Hembo harness their lifetime of sports knowledge to explain which sports legends have settled their claims on the numbers 1 through 100.

Jersey numbers are one of the most visceral parts of any athlete's identity and are often shorthand for the player. These two are here to help you understand facts like why Michael Jordan owns the number 23 (and 63, and 93), Derek Jeter owns 2, and the jersey-less Arnold Palmer claims 62.

Got Your Answers
978-1368108584
240 pages, $14.99 HC

The 100 most-debated questions in the sports-talk world—answered definitively. In 100 lists and short essays detailing the best of the best in football, basketball, baseball, hockey, boxing, and more, Greeny and Hembo answer questions like: What is the most coveted trophy in all of sports? Who is the most clutch in Game 7? Which ballpark has the most interesting concessions? And why is Rocky without a doubt the best sports movie of all time?

Got Your Legends
978-1368108577
320 page HC, $27.99

With controversial audacity, Greenberg and Hembo rank the 124 North American sports franchises of the NFL, NBA, MLB, and NHL from best to worst and reveal which legends have earned spots on the Mount Rushmores of each team.

In easily digested essays for the top 60 teams, the ESPN duo explain the characters of each franchise and gives loyal fans and newbies a great overview of sports history—and new topics ripe for sports debate.